

Rev'd David Brewster

The Rev'd David Brewster is the Vicar of the parish.

David was born in Harrogate on 17th December 1968, where he lived until moving away to study music at the London College of Music.

After graduating he worked for six years in retail for Royal Doulton and Wedgwood, before training in Durham for ordination.

David served for three and a half years in Birkenhead before moving to Stockport, where he has been since 2003. He serves as one of the Stockport Deanery reps on the Diocesan Synod.

He is married to Lucy (who is a member of the Reader team) and they have three children: Christopher, Rebecca and Matthew.
