Harvest

Of the many things my granddaughter wrote about in her 'Summer Holiday Diary' - 6 years old and there's already holiday homework! - I was pleased to see she had recorded, we went blackberrying with Granma - we picked loads.

And so we did, delighting to pick a tasty, free and bountiful harvest from the rough hedgerows only yards from my urban front door. The harvested fruits are now safely gathered in, in my freezer - and there are still so many more out there waiting to be picked, if only people would lift their eyes and see them.

A happy, family sharing time - a healthy and enjoyable free gift, a promise of more to come.

Heather's Adams Reader Licensing

On 19th October at 2<sup>pm</sup> I am going to be licensed as a Reader.

The licensing service at Chester Cathedral marks the official start of my Reader ministry, and I am finally allowed to wear the blue scarf!

Could this be exactly what God has in mind for us as both physical and spiritual harvest?

Julie J

So much of His bounty does our loving God long to give to us; how often we fail to lift our eyes from the emptiness of worldly distractions; how slow we are to reach out and receive all God has to offer to us.

*For the wonders that astound us,
for the truths that still confound us,
most of all that love has found us,
thanks be to God.*

Make sure you don't miss out on God's Harvest for you - whatever form it may take.

With love in Christ, Julie J xo

My training has been both course - and parish-based so I already feel part of the team here in Edgeley and Cheadle Heath. Some of the things I have been asked to do in my training have been quite daunting but it has been a real learning experience.

Heather Adams continued...

I particularly appreciated the chance to study Bible passages in depth, and preach on them. Less enjoyable was being recorded on video! I have made lots of friends on the course and learned more of what God is doing across the Diocese and beyond.

I am so grateful to everyone in church for their encouragement along the way and to my Dad (aka Mike) for his weekly childcare slot to enable me to get to course. Heather Adams

Partnering Power

From this September,

St Matthew's will be joining in partnership with Quality

Care of Cheadle to help to promote and run the Socially Yours group, which meets every Tuesday in church, from 1:30<sup>pm</sup> to 3:30<sup>pm</sup>.

This is an exciting new venture for us and we welcome your support, both in prayer and in practical ways!

Socially Yours gives isolated and vulnerable people the chance to get together and have a cup of tea, enjoy quizzes, crafts, even a bit of dancing. They arrange meals out for a special treat and it is a lovely, friendly group.

If you know someone who would like this group, please encourage them to come along. It costs £3 a week and everyone is welcome.

If you would like to help out, maybe by serving tea and coffee, or being a friendly face, please have a chat with Pam Robinson. We really want this group to be a success and we can only do this by reaching out to our community. Do you have a hobby or skill you can share?

Just recently, our very own Linda Cosgriff visited the group and everyone loved her poetry (we even got into the Stockport Express). If you have any talents, don't be shy, come along and share your passion! Perhaps you are able to offer help in driving people to or from the group; or you are a great chatsby, able to put people at their ease. Whatever your gift, please share it with Socially Yours and help us to strengthen this partnership.

Parish Pub Quiz

Come along for some fun at our next pub quiz: Wednesday 16th October at the Olde Vic (corner of Chatham Street and King Street West), 7.30<sup>pm</sup> for an 8<sup>pm</sup> start. Only £1 per person (we'll split into teams on the night). Bring friends!

Team Talk

Here's what's happening in some of the ministries this month:

Social and Community: After a busy summer of fun with the Children and Young People events (swimming pool parties, day trip to Rhyl, and more) there was no time for rest as it was straight into the Heritage Open Days and Fun Day! We had a wonderful response from people, from cleaning the church in preparation for the public, bringing photographs and sharing memories, and volunteering for the Fun Day. A huge THANK YOU to everyone involved.

Coming Up

Hot Pot Supper on Saturday 5th October at the Pavilion; a Craft Fair on Saturday 12th October; and the next Pub Quiz on Wednesday 16th October.

We need help with the social activities so if you like organising the odd "do" then speak to Pam Robinson for more information.

PS Start thinking now about the Christmas (yes, that does say CHRISTMAS!) Fair on Saturday 23rd November.

Discipleship: Two initiatives planned for the autumn are now underway: First, a programme of study for the homegroups. At present we are following a six-week course of 'Praying with the Psalms', using a study booklet. For those who can't get to a group, a brief summary posted each week on the website allows them to follow the studies. After half term we will be moving on to the letter of James, a book which amongst other things considers the relationship between faith and good works in the Christian life.

THE MONEY COURSE

The Alpha Money Course is designed to help church and non-church members alike to examine their attitudes towards money; and get control of their finances. The course started in September and will continue to mid-October. The studies will be available on the website until November.

Shining a Light on

Torch Trust(2) the Christian organisation with a vision for people with sight loss

Torch Trust has been working with blind and partially sighted people for 53 years. Based in Leicestershire, the organisation has an amazing history and an international reach. This time we hear about Torch groups.

Acceptance And Friendship

People with sight loss often find themselves lonely or isolated - excluded from social events that sighted people take for granted. It can be good to meet with those who face the same issues, to share experiences, find resources and be encouraged.

Torch Trust runs over 100 Torch Fellowship Groups around the UK, generally meeting on a monthly basis, for a varied and informal programme of activities, all within an environment of Christian fellowship and often based at a local church. New groups are starting all the time.

More recently, different kinds of Torch groups have been trialled and launched, meeting the need for different kinds of social contact. These include telephone friendship groups, called TorchTalk, and book groups - where blind and partially sighted people meet together informally to discuss Christian audio books provided by Torch.

All the services Torch offers are open to people of any faith or none. To know more, email info@torchtrust.org or visit the website www.torchtrust.org.

The quarterly magazine is also available on the table at the back of church. Lin Ball
